

FDRRC NEWSLETTER ISSUE 3 – SEPTEMBER 2019

NEW MEMBERS:

A big warm FDRRC Welcome to our newest Member: Christine Watkins, Kerry Wren and Sarah Pickard

A THANK YOU

The Have-a-Go Horse Agility Sue organised back in April pledged to give a donation to the charity The Compassionate Friends – a charity close to my own & Bev Horkan's (Mockbeggar landowner) hearts. Compassionate Friends helps support bereaved parents and their families.

I am pleased to tell you that we were able to send them £55.00 thanks to all those who supported the event. We have now received the following Thank You from them:

Dear Bev

I write to confirm the safe receipt of the cheque for £55 to The Compassionate Friends from the Faversham & District Riding Club following your Fun Horse Agility Day in memory of your son Joe.

As you know, The Compassionate Friends very much relies on fundraising and donations from individuals and organisations. Financial contributions like this ensure that we can continue to offer comfort, support and hope to bereaved parents so that together they can survive after the heart-breaking loss of a precious, much-loved child.

I hope that everyone did indeed have fun on the day. Please do thank everyone involved for their generosity and their support

Best wishes.

Stephen Armstrong (Head of Fundraising)

LOOKING BACK:

EQUIPILATES LECTUR/DEMO at Bossingham Village Hall on May 30th

Summer seems to have flown by and although it only seems like yesterday, it was back on 30th May that we had a most interesting talk on equipilates by Laura Carter at Bossingham Village Hall.

The evening was enlightening and extremely informative, with Laura explaining how our own imbalances make such an impact on our horses. Laura explained how she works, assessing each rider through a series of exercises to 'body map' and find the crookednesses we all suffer from. Riders are then given individual exercises to help combat and improve these issues. If undergoing several sessions with Laura, you would then be body mapped again to see improvements and again specific exercises would be given and so on until you reach an equilibrium.

The evening ended with a lively Q and A, coffee, tea and most importantly cake!

Laura runs HorseKind, and is based in Thanet covering all of East KENT. Laura is a qualified Equine Sports Therapist having trained first as a human massage therapist, went on to train with the late Mary Bromley MBE. Laura works with all types of horses from British Champion Games ponies, Dressage Horses, Showjumpers, Driving Horses and the lovely happy hackers!

Laura continued with studying the rider and the effect the horse and rider have on one another and decided to train as an Equipilates Biomechanics TrainerTM

Laura work with riders within a variety of riding disciplines in the form of; mat work classes, 1 to 1 sessions, Biomechanics sessions and also workshops all over Kent.

The work with the riders helps them to become more body aware, they learn how their body is currently functioning and how it can function more effectively so as to improve their riding, she works with riders to reduce muscle spasms that may have been present in the body for years and causing a number of restrictions that have gone undetected.

VERSATILE TREC HORSE COMPETITION & INDOOR DOG SHOW
at Willow Farm EC (ME13 0RS) on July 21st 2019

On July 21st 2019 we ran our third Versatile TREC Horse Competition at Willow Farm Equestrian Centre. After a slightly slow start to the entries we finished the day with 30 riders taking part in the three phase competition. We could have taken a few more but there were good entries in each class and competitors travelled from all over Kent, Surrey & Sussex despite the M2 being closed that Sunday.

Everyone who came seemed to have a really good time and we had many "thank yous" both on the day and afterwards. It is a rather unusual competition consisting of an obedience test, timed control of paces and an obstacle course and therefore something a little different to do with your horse.

A big Thank You to all the people who volunteered to help on the day and our Sponsors SEC Ltd (Builders), P R Elvin Engineering, Gillett Cook Country Store, Mount Ephraim Gardens & Lady Dane Veterinary Surgery.

The Dog show which was held in the indoor arena at 2.00 pm was a barking success with 50 dogs taking part in the 18 classes with 26 in one class alone. Some competitors had ridden in the morning and then took their canine companion into the dog show. Many thanks to the Judge, Tony Franklin and Mandy, our Secretary.
